

Twentieth Annual Goldsmith Summer School

June 4th - June 6th 2004

Theme: "Goldsmith in London"

(A comparative look at the Irish experience of London in recent times vis-à-vis the latter half of the 18th century)

Friday June 4th

Rustic Inn, Abbeyshrule
Chair: James Downey

8.30: pm

Official Opening by Mr Larry McCluskey

9.00: pm

Keynote Address by Jonathan Moore

"Writers, Rebels and Religion: A Partial History of the Irish in London"

Saturday June 5th

Bog Lane Theatre, Ballymahon
Chair: Albert Horan

4.00: pm

Sally Mulready

"The Older Irish in London"

8.00: pm

Dramatised Readings by Michael Conlon

9.00: pm

Poetry Reading by Des Egan

Sunday June 6th

11.30: pm

Tour of Goldsmith Country
beginning at Ballymahon (Booking 090 -64 32474)

3.30: pm

Pallas, Abbeyshrule
Chair: Pauline Devine

Poetry Reading by children from schools in Goldsmith Country.

Joe's Cheese and Wine

Poetry Reading by Noel Monahan

Admission to Fri. and Sun. events €5.00
Admission on Sat. €10.00

For Further Information contact:
Ann Tully, (Secretary)
Edgeworthstown, Co. Longford
(043) 71448